Welcome Br. Eugene Mwape Mule (by P. Susai Jesu, omi)

Brother Eugene Mwape Mule joined our Oblate Community at Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples on September 2, 2018. He will be with us for one year to gain valuable pastoral experience on his grace-filled journey to priesthood. Since his arrival Brother Eugene has immersed himself in serving the poor, house blessings, visiting the sick, assisting in the wake and funeral services and assisting in sacramental preparation etc.

At our 11:30 a.m. mass on September 16th Brother Eugene renewed his vows in front of Archbishop Emeritus Sylvain Lavoie, OMI and Fr. Susai Jesu, OMI. Our Sacred Heart family was blessed to be part of this special occasion and offered prayers for him. We wish Brother Eugene a successful and meaningful year as he continues his journey to priesthood.

Kayaking on Lac Ste Anne (by Archbishop Emeritus Sylvain Lavoie)

This is a shot of kayaking on Lac Ste Anne West Cove on a windy September 3rd Monday - between the shore and the weeds where it was safer.

The white is foam beaten up by the waves, not snow. I wonder if it is natural or pollution.
