Dear Oblate Family,

This past year has changed our lives in dramatic and relentless ways that we never could have imagined. Our world is hurting, people are separated from loved ones during this pandemic, people have lost loved ones, we have not been able to hug one another, grieve together, celebrate births, weddings and momentous events in our lives the way we wish we could. Our neighbours in the United States have been facing chaos, domestic terrorism, hate and violence. The poor around the world are suffering terribly with the loss of meagre ways of earning money to feed their children, to send them to school or care for the sick and elderly and are relying more on the generosity of others. These are but drops in the ocean of the challenges humanity is facing and brings us helplessly to our knees.

Yet amidst all this pain and strife, we are not alone, we still have hope, we pray that we will get through this, that we will dance and live life fully, and we believe that goodness and love will prevail. Through it all, we will continue to take care of those most in need as best we can together.

We invite you to share your personal intentions with the Missionary Oblates to be honoured during our annual Novena of Prayer being held March 19-27. For nine days, a mass will be celebrated by a specially chosen Oblate as listed in the enclosed Novena booklet. Together, the Oblate Missionaries and we, the partners of MAMI, will pray together in spirit as one family. Even as we are being forced to be apart, this also can be a time of strength within the Oblate family.

May God bless us all with much needed healing.

Gratefully,

Glenn Zimmer, OMI
