Dear friends and family of the Missionary Oblates,

Many of you participated in our annual Novena held March 19-27 with thousands of your prayer intentions being offered up through masses celebrated by our dear Oblates. We are deeply touched by the honesty you shared of the present struggles and challenges that you are facing. It was quite clear that hope is central to our faith. There is hope that the pandemic that has gripped the world for the last year will be curbed by vaccines as they become available. There is hope that healing will take place in our bodies, our minds, our relationships and in our world. There is hope that this long winter will end and that we will soon see the wonder and growth of spring with its freshness and promise of new life.

For the poor, the pandemic is devastating and is impacting their lives even more than we can imagine. We are grateful that so many of you have given the gift of hope over the past year to those who are struggling to survive. We ask you to continue responding to the needs of our sisters and brothers; let us continue to share what we have to feed the hungry, care for the sick, educate the young and so much more. Let us be hope for others as they strive towards a better life.

May God bless you and those dear to you. Happy Easter!

Gratefully,

Glenn Zimmer, OMI
