Dear Partners in Mission,

None of us truly knows what Heaven is really like, but we do believe that Heaven is where we will be one with God, that God will forgive our sins, wipe away our tears and where there will be no more suffering and pain. We imagine that Heaven is where we will be reunited with our loved ones, where there will be much joy and laughter and where we will be surrounded in God's love and perfect peace together.

On All Souls' Day (Nov. 2), we remember those who have passed before us. Fr. Susai Jesu, OMI, from Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples in Edmonton, will be our special celebrant for our All Souls' Day Mass. The mass will be live-streamed on Nov. 2 at 9 a.m. (Alberta time) through facebook.com/sacredheartyeeg/

We invite you to send us the names of your deceased loved ones on the enclosed card so that we can honour and cherish them during the Eucharistic celebration.

We thank all of you who continue to support the Oblates and their ministry works with the poor here in Canada and around the world through your faithful prayers and generous gifts. Together we are helping improve the lives of others and hopefully bringing a glimpse of Heaven to Earth.

Gratefully,

Glenn Zimmer, OMI
