

The Kusenberger Chair of Oblate Studies
presents...

THE HISTORICAL EXPANSION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE MISSIONARY OBLATES OF MARY IMMACULATE

A study of the missionary expansion of the Congregation into five continents from 1816 until the present: the events, the reasons for the choices made, and the underlying spirit that motivated the missionary thrust. This is an online asynchronous class, and participants will be able to view prerecorded lessons and materials at their own pace until the end of the Semester

January-May 2022

Instructor: Fr. Thomas Klosterkamp, O.M.I.

Associate professor of Church History at Oblate School of Theology. German born, Fr. Klosterkamp studied in Germany, France and Italy. His experience includes ministries as parochial vicar (1994-1996), high school teacher (1996-2000), novice master (2000-2003), provincial superior (2003-2013), university lecturer for church history (2004-2013), superior of the Oblate General House and postulator general (2013-2019), provincial archivist (2019-2020).

For more information or to register, contact us at oblatestudies@ost.edu

Click here to Visit the Course Website