Queen's House News: Brendan Bitz, Director

Slowly but surely things are picking up in terms of in-house activity as more and more groups and guests are feeling comfortable in gathering in social and business settings. This said, Covid continues to 'hang around' like an unwanted, uninvited visitor who just won't leave, getting in everyone's way and generally making a nuisance of itself. And in this all, the work that is required to host and care for guests, generate programming activity, encourage participation in events and keep things operating smoothly requires all the time, attention and talent that our collective crew can muster. Sarah and Brendan will attend the NACORRC Retreat next week at Queen of the Apostles in Mississauga, Ontario, and the week after that will see our Oblates and Associate representatives tootle off to St. Albert for Convocation 2022. We look forward to sharing our encounters and learning with you upon our return.
