Dear Oblate Friends and Family,

Our lives, relationships, economics and indeed our world are constantly changing and evolving, challenging us to respond in new ways. Our MAMI office is being affected by rising costs associated with the printing and mailing of our Oblate Spirit publication. After prayerful reflection we will still produce five publications this year, but will only print and mail three of them through Canada Post. The other two publications, along with other brief mission updates, will be e-mailed from our office. We are aware that not everyone has e-mail access, but if you do, it would be appreciated if you could provide us with your e-mail address below to allow us to stay in touch with you.

Our annual Novena of Prayer will be held March 19-27, 2023. Please send us your prayer intentions using the enclosed card and return envelope. Together with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate and hundreds of MAMI members, we will unite our hearts in prayer as one family.

Thank you for bringing compassion and kindness to our world.

Gratefully,

Diane Lepage
