

Dear Oblate Family,

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the Annual Novena of Prayer beginning March 19 and concluding March 27 with specially chosen Oblates from around the world, who will celebrate a Mass for nine consecutive days for your intentions. This sacred event is a time for reflection, unity, and devotion as we come together in spirit and in prayer for our own personal needs and those of our family, friends and communities here and globally. We encourage you to use the enclosed Prayers for Healing card for your prayer intentions that we will share with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

We are so very grateful for your past support that enables the Oblates to continue to serve the poor and marginalized with love and compassion. Your generous donations directly impact the lives of those in great need, helping to provide crucial services, food, shelter, sacraments and hope to the most vulnerable. You may even want to consider donating monthly as a reminder of your commitment to making this world a better place for all.

Please join us in prayer and in contributing to helping the poor through the ministry works of the Oblates. Thank you for being a faithful partner in mission with us!

With gratitude,

Diane
