Fr. Heinner Paucar finalizes his departure from the Pelican Narrows-Sandy Bay Mission where he served the Rocky Cree Community for the past six years.

This picture was taken the morning after Fr. Heinner celebrated his last Epiphany Mass and farewell with his Community.

The picture shows Fr. Heinner looking out across the frozen Pelican Lake as he ponders a meaningful past and the dawn of a new day.

Chris Taylor, Bernard & Sandy Normand did a very nice presentation on the Lay Association process.

Jim & Adele Longstaff and Fr Joe Jacek listen intently.

After mass we enjoyed a lovely supper prepared by the cooks at Trinity Manor. There were lots of stories, laughter and we remembered Fr. Paul Fachet who would have been with us but couldn't because he was stuck at home nursing a cold. Fr. Paul wants you to know he is doing well now.

On day 2 of Community Days, Shaun and Katarina Nechvatel's daughters, Anika and Eva joined us for lunch and the afternoon session. They brightened up the whole room with their beautiful smiles.

Sometimes you just gotta say I need a moment.
Jim Longstaff used his coffee break to do just that.

When community days concluded, those that could, gathered to enjoy supper at Wendal Clarks. The service and food were delicious!

Brian Zimmer, Joanne Chrones, Lance Hartman, Fr Joe Jacek, Mark Lich, Fr Doug Jeffrey, Paula Fournier, Blain Young and Corrine Pambrun.

It was another great 2 days together celebrating our District Community.
